

Developmental Services

Right Time, Right Care

1

Mutual Self Help:

Peer-led and run activities for people with developmental disabilities.

Resources:
ARC

2

Outpatient Supports:

Service Coordination assists individuals connect to resources, and provides support with finances, housing, and employment. Individual and Group Counseling can support individuals achieve their goals.

Resources:
Maple Leaf Clinic, RMHS, private practice clinicians

3

Community Programming

Group and individual activities offered in the community, office, or facility offer socialization, life-long learning, and pursuit of personal interests. Individualized employment and educational services available to support individual's goals

Resources:
RMHS, Godnick Center

4

Crisis Stabilization:

A safe and supportive place to feel better for people in crisis.

Resources:
CSID, VCIN,
RMHS Crisis 802-775-1000

5

Residential Supports:

Support to individuals in their homes, up to 24/7, providing medication oversight, skilled coaching, community engagement, ADL support and teaching. Supervised group residential settings based on individual care needs.

Resources:
RMHS, North End Ranch
Shared Living Providers

